Re: Joseph C. Weber v. Atlantic Zeiser/Orell Fussli,
Case No. 08-CV-0977 (DRD) (MAS)

Dear Judge Shipp:

As Your Honor is aware, we represent Plaintiff Joseph C. Weber in the above-referenced matter. Pursuant to Your Honor's instructions during the telephonic conference on July 1, 2009, as memorialized in the Amended Scheduling Order dated July 7, 2009, the parties have met and conferred in good faith efforts to resolve outstanding disputes concerning written discovery. In light of those good faith discussions, as well as further correspondence between the parties, we hereby submit this joint letter, with Defendant's consent, to respectfully notify the Court that the parties have been able to resolve nearly all pending disputes regarding written discovery. The parties further anticipate that the few remaining open issues will be timely resolved between the parties, in good faith, without impacting the previously scheduled depositions set forth in the Amended Scheduling Order.

Respectfully submitted,
